ABOUT ME

From Analysis to Actionable Intelligence

Data Analyst & BI Specialist with 8+ years of turning messy, scattered business data into clean, trusted insights that leaders actually use to make decisions. I build end-to-end SQL/Python/BI solutions that eliminate manual spreadsheets, cut reporting effort by 40%, and save 16+ hours per department each month while reducing metric conflicts by 40%.

"I'm usually brought in when teams are drowning in different versions of truth and need someone to align KPIs, centralize data, and ship fast, reliable dashboards."

End-to-End Ownership

Strategy to delivery of BI solutions that work together seamlessly.

Guaranteed Results

On-time delivery with measurable ROI, improved forecasting, reduced uncertainty.

Data Storytelling

Complex data becomes compelling visual narratives stakeholders trust.

International Expertise

Fluent in English (C1), German (B2), and Turkish (native).
